WSR 22-17-079

Agency: Washington State Gambling Commission (WSGC)

Subject of possible rule making: The WSGC is considering amending its rules related to wagering limits on house-banked card games, including WAC 230-15-140.

Statutes authorizing the agency to adopt rules on this subject: RCW 9.46.070

Reasons why rules on this subject may be needed and what they might accomplish: The WSGC received a petition from the public proposing to amend rules to increase wagering limits on house-banked card games. Wagering limits for house-banked card games have not been increased since 2009. An amendment to rules to increase wagering limits, if approved, would specify the maximum limit authorized and how such limits must be applied.

Identify other federal and state agencies that regulate this subject and the process coordinating the rule with these agencies: None.

Process for developing new rule (check all that apply):

- ☒ Negotiated rule making
- ☐ Pilot rule making
- ☐ Agency study
- ☐ Other (describe)

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication by contacting:
